Life-Style Agreement

If granted a scholarship, I promise to conform to the General and Special Rules of the Pilgrim Nazarene Church and the school rules governing my educational, social, and spiritual life.

Hebrews 13:17 states, “Obey them that have the rule over you, and submit your selves; for they watch for your souls, as they that must give account, that they may do it with joy, and not with grief; for that is profitable for you.” In light of this scripture, I will readily submit to those who are in a position of authority at the school I attend, and to my sponsor and the scholarship committee staff having responsibility for my scholarship program for as long as they have oversight over me.
